

General Regulations for Degrees in the Faculty of Arts and Humanities

1. Exemption from the provisions of Regulations relating to periods of study in a foreign country for candidates following Single or Dual Honours in a modern foreign language may be granted by the Faculty on the recommendation of the Head(s) of Department(s) concerned.
2. A Distinction in the spoken language may be awarded by the Senate, on the recommendation of the Faculty, to a candidate following a course including a modern foreign language who, in the opinion of the Examiners, has attained an exceptional standard of oral proficiency in the language(s) studied.
3. A candidate who has taken a programme of study leading to the award of the Degree of BA in the Faculty may, with the approval of the Faculty, enter for the Final Examination for another such programme of study, provided that the candidate has attended for at least one further year such programmes of study and taken such examinations as the Faculty may prescribe.
4. A candidate for a dual programme of study in two modern foreign languages may not at Level 1 take units from the Non A Level stream in both languages.
